

The Sudanese Collaborative Conference (SCC22) is a first of its kind collective work among a wide range and diverse group of Sudanese Diasporas in the U.S. It is collaboratively hosted and fully financed by Sustainable Democracy Organization (SDO) and the Umma Group (UG). SDO is a non-profit, non-governmental organizations working to promote democratic action and foster bilateral relations between the peoples of the Sudan and the United States of America.

The Sudanese Collaborative Conference (SCC22) which will be held in Greater Washington DC area, May 13 -15, 2022, at the Crowne Plaza located at 2200 Centreville Road in Herndon, VA 20170.

Major theme of this conference is Sudan's transition toward democracy, possible scenarios and potential implications. The main SCC22 topics include:

- Building Capacity for Effective Engagement in political transformations in fragile states
- Challenges of Sustaining Democracy in deep divided societies
- Issues of Ending a War and Restoring Justice in conflict-stricken areas
- Building a robust economic institution in least developing societies

These topics will be discussed on the first day of the conference, Saturday May 14th from 4:00 to 6:00 PM.

Speakers are coming from a diverse rich background and current positions dealing with the bilateral relations between the United States and Sudan's.

Contact:

- Hassab Ali, 2020hassabali@gmail.com ; (907) 687-8595)

- Mohamed Alomarabee umma.america@gmail.com ; (443) 735-6158)